

Cross-reference table

GMP⁺ Standard B2 (2010) and GMP⁺ Standard B2

In the following table there are references from the GMP⁺ Standard B2 (2010), published on 3 December 2009 to the current GMP⁺ Standard B2 version 24 July 2009, which was originally published in 2006.

The tables provide general references to corresponding requirements in the standard specified. The references are also not exhaustive. Parts of certain requirements may also be included in other articles of the new standard. In order to obtain insight at the detailed level into the changes, you should always first go through the complete new standard. No rights may be derived from the use of this table.
